

MEDIA RELEASE

ELLETTSVILLE POLICE HIRE NEW PART-TIME OFFICER

ELLETTSVILLE, INDIANA (June 1, 2018): On Tuesday, May 29th, the Ellettsville Town Council voted to approve the hiring of a new part-time police officer. Marshal Jimmie Durnil asked the Town Council to approve the addition of a new part-time officer to help with shift coverage during the upcoming military deployment of Sergeant Craig Davis. Sergeant Davis will be under military deployment orders later this year and throughout next year. The Town Council voted to hire Camron A. Frye, who has completed the Indiana Law Enforcement Training Board Basic Training Academy while attending Indiana University and working as a Part-time Police Officer at Indiana University Police Department. Officer Frye is a 2014 Graduate of Eastern Greene High School and is still attending Indiana University working toward completion of his Bachelor's Degree. The Members of the Ellettsville Police Department are excited to "Welcome" Camron Frye to the department!

