ELLETTSVILLE POLICE NAME 2018 OFFICER OF THE YEAR

ELLETTSVILLE, INDIANA (May 14, 2019): On Monday, May 13th, 2019, Town Marshal Jimmie Durnil presented his nominee for "Police Officer Of The Year" to the Ellettsville Town Council during regular session. Marshal Durnil chose Chief Deputy Jay Humphrey to receive the award. Marshal Durnil cited Chief Deputy Humphrey's twenty-eight years of service and devotion to the Town of Ellettsville, as one of the numerous reasons he chose Chief Deputy Humphrey to receive the award. Marshal Durnil also commented on the 185 service calls, twenty-one vehicle crashes and eighty-two criminal cases that Chief Deputy Humphrey handled in 2018. The Town Council and Marshal Durnil presented Chief Deputy Humphrey with a plaque to commemorate the honor bestowed upon him in being recognized as the "2018 Ellettsville Police Officer of the Year".
